

Webinar: Secondary Suites, Second Thoughts

Bon Swanson, from the Community Housing node, presents an overview of emerging research at the University of Alberta that asks the question “Are secondary suites an affordable and appropriate method of providing affordable housing to low-income Canadians, particularly as a stop-gap between the demand that exists for Community Housing and the supply of subsidized units?”

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=nePwyHo2kk4>